

Fundi Zwane is a Safe Sets-trained Intimacy Coordinator, award-winning actress, and creative entrepreneur with over 10 years of experience across film, television, theatre, and media. Drawing on an extensive performance career and deep understanding of on-set dynamics, she champions artist wellbeing through consent-led practice, risk assessment, and culturally responsive safeguarding.

Recognised for her ability to navigate diverse and multilingual environments, Fundi excels at spearheading cross-cultural collaboration on local and international productions, creating safer and more inclusive spaces for performers and crew alike. Her work bridges storytelling and safeguarding, ensuring that intimate, violent, and emotionally demanding content is approached with professionalism, dignity, and care.

As one of the few trained Intimacy Coordinators in KwaZulu-Natal, Fundi brings a unique blend of artistic excellence, cultural fluency, and ethical leadership to every production she serves.
