

Loren Loubser is a queer non-binary intimacy coordinator of Colour. Coming from a theatre and performance background, Loren Loubser is a wonderful creative collaborator and improviser; adapting to meet director and performer style and needs. Loren focuses storytelling and supporting the performers and performance whilst making rehearsals and intimacy fun and empowering.

Loren has also been a First Assistant Director within the industry and this aids the way they work closely with the director and vision of the project, whilst being time and crew conscious. Loren has worked as an intimacy coordinator across film and television both locally and internationally ranging from teenage content, violent content, sensitive material, nudity, queer focus and racially sensitive material.

Loren has experience within sexual health, the kink scene, sex work and pleasure focus and this enables them to have a very sex positive, empowering and passionate approach to intimacy coordinating.
